Demery Bishop, Executive Director for CrimeStoppers of Savannah-Chatham County and Pete Nichols, Public Information Coordinator for Chatham County are pleased to announce the CrimeStoppers Focus television program won a national award October 11, 2006, at the annual 3CMA (City-County Communications and Marketing Association) conference in Irving, Texas. The Silver Circle award was presented to representatives of Chatham County and CrimeStoppers for the CrimeStoppers Focus: Chatham County Detention Center video program. CrimeStoppers Focus was one of several hundred entries in the "Regularly Scheduled Television Program" category. Previous CrimeStoppers Focus programs have included Savannah-Chatham Metropolitan Police Department: Precinct Operations and Special Operations, and the Chatham County Sheriff's Department. Our next program is in production and will feature the Savannah Impact Program.
